

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2349 - SB 2333

March 10, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Adds requirements for obtaining certification as an alarm system contractor. Changes record retention period for certified real estate appraisers from three years to five years.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues – Not Significant
State Expenditures – Net Impact – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- A not significant decrease in state revenues to the extent that persons or entities currently certified will not meet the certification requirements of this bill and therefore will not pay fees.
- Any decrease in expenditures from not having to regulate persons or entities that are currently certified but will not meet the certification requirements of this bill versus any increase in state expenditures to verify the new certification requirements and implement any other provisions of this bill will be not significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".

James W. White, Executive Director